

“World Turns”

Words and music by Donny Douglas

Intro: Am C Am C

Verse

Am C

There was a time when it was easy to look across the open fields, now that's just a dream

Am C

It used to be that I could breath the air and feel the autumn chill, but times have changed

G Am C D

And sometimes it feels like the changes are me

G Am C D

The signs on the window but you look at the glass and can't read

Chorus

G Em B D A

The world turns, changing its mind, feeling the years take a back seat

G Em B D A Em

The world turns, seeing the signs, watching us slowly halting, the world turns

Verse

Am C

The worlds still turning but it's not just the sun that is burning hot, you know it's not

Am C

Our days are numbered yet we count in the hundreds and ignore the rot, how long have we got?

G Am C D

And just when the numbers are mounting we see

G Am C D

That while we were counting, we're lost to the sea

Chorus

G Em B D A

The world turns, changing its mind, feeling the years take a back seat

G Em B D A Em

The world turns, seeing the signs, watching us slowly halting, the world turns middle eight

Am G D A

And can't you see it's how we knew it would be

G-Am G D

We made our bed and now we lie on it

G-Am G D A

I hoped that we would see that it was all so easily changed

C D A

In the end it just re-arranged

Instrumental break followed by final verse

Am C

We try to fake it but we're not going to make it if we steal the rain

Am C

It's plain to see if they were like you and me we could have stayed the same

G Am C D

Your hearing the words I say roll of your tongue

G Am C D

You're staring accusing the old and the young

Chorus

G Em B

D

A

The world turns, changing its mind, feeling the years take a back seat

G Em B

D

A

Em

The world turns, seeing the signs, watching us slowly halting, the world turns