

“Change your mind”

Words and music by Donny Douglas

Intro: E7 x 16 bars

Verse

E7

Who do, you think you are?

E7

You don't walk into my life, you travel by car

C9

You act, like, you own a piece of my time

G A E7

Well you just better think about, changing your mind

E7

You said, some things, that others shouldn't hear

E7

You move like you advertise your wares

C9

You don't, seem, to understand my kind,

G A E7

So you just better think about, changing your mind

Middle eight

F7 C7 F7 C7

I've been looking, for some kind of break

F7 C7 G7

I've been thinking, this whole damn thing is just a big mistake,

Spoken E7

What do you think about that?

2nd Verse

E7

I try to talk but you're stood in my place

E7

I take a walk and you get into my face

C9

I don't know what you expect to find

G

A

But you just better think about, changing

Chorus

G

Your mind..... or I'm gonna change it for you

G

Your mind..... or I'm gonna find it for you

D

You'll find..... You've got a lot more time

E7

You'll find, that.... if you don't change your mind

2nd Verse

You walk round town like Jesus loves your face

You treat my friends like they don't know their place

You think my whole chequebooks undersigned

But you just better think about, changing your mind

I know now what I have got to do

To live I must put a hold on you

I can't go through life acting like I'm blind

So I just got to bring about, a change in my

Chorus

C                      G

mind..... or I'm gonna change it for you

C                      G

Your mind..... or I'm gonna find it for you

D                      A

You'll find..... You've got a lot more time

D    E7

You'll find, that.... if you don't change your mind

Don't change your mind...

Don't change your mind..

Don't change your mind...

Repeat to fade
